INTRODUCTION

We are committed to promoting permaculture practices and help our customers to grow better, stronger plants while contributing to environmental protection.

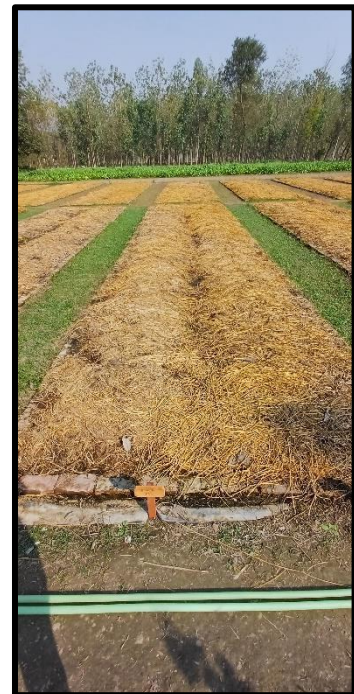

Dev Bhoomi Traders is a specialized vermicompostig company committed to provide the highest quality organic fertilizer through innovative and eco-friendly methods. Our goal is to provide you with reliable and sustainable solutions that support not only your soil but also the overall health of your soil.

ABOUT US

Dev Bhoomi Traders is an organic vermicompost farm. Located in Town Chilkana, Dist.- Saharanpur, U.P

Our aim is to contribute towards the improvement of soil health with our current annual production of 400 Metric Tonne. We have more than 60 Beds of 40 feet.

OUR AIM

Our primary aims are to:

- ◆ Promote Sustainable Agriculture: Implement and advance organic farming practices that prioritize environmental health, biodiversity, and soil fertility.

- ◆ Empower Farmers: Provide training, resources, and support to farmers, enabling them to adopt sustainable and profitable methods.
- ◆ Deliver Quality Products: Ensure the production of high-quality, organic goods that meet or surpass industry standards.

- ◆ Innovate Agriculture: Constantly explore and integrate innovative technologies and practices to enhance efficiency, reduce environmental impact, and contribute to the evolution of sustainable agriculture.
- ◆ Community Engagement: Foster strong relationships with local communities, promoting social responsibility and contributing to the overall well-being of the areas in which we operate

By aligning with these aims, we aim to play a pivotal role in shaping a more sustainable and resilient future for agriculture.
